YESTERDAY

- A TRIBUTE TO THE BEATLES

Go back to February 7, 1964 when the world went mad over the lads from Liverpool. "I Want To Hold Your Hand" was No.1 on the U. S. Charts. New York City became tumultuous as the jet carrying John, Paul, George and Ringo touched down. Beatlemania ruled.

Thirty-six years later, Beatlemania is still rocking the country.

YESTERDAY has been performing and touring throughout the world sounding and looking like the Beatles. Thrilling their audiences wearing authentic suits like the ones on The Ed Sullivan Show, YESTERDAY will take you on a mystery tour from 1964 to 1966 with their mop top hair, Beatle boots, exciting powerful vocals and witty stage mannerisms!

Then, in their second set, YESTERDAY comes out bringing back the psychedelic era of peace and love in 1967, wearing colorful satin Sgt. Pepper suits and moustaches, with screaming fans singing along, YESTERDAY will take you to 1970 in the final days of Beatlemania.
